Joseph and Mary walked through an orchard green.
There were cherries and berries, as thick as might be seen.
There were cherries and berries, as thick as might be seen.

Mary said to Joseph, so meek and so mild:
Joseph, gather me some cherries, for I am with child.
Joseph, gather me some cherries, for I am with child.

Then Joseph flew in anger, in anger flew he:
Let the father of the baby gather cherries for thee!
Let the father of the baby gather cherries for thee!

Then up spoke baby Jesus, from in Mary's womb:
Bend down the tallest branches, that my mother might have some.
Bend down the tallest branches, that my mother might have some.

Then bent down the tallest branches, to touch Mary's hand.
Cried she: Oh look thou, Joseph, I have cherries by command.
Oh look thou, Joseph, I have cherries by command.
